Dear Josh,

Congratulations on being one of the recipients of the 2017 Gitner Family Prize.

Josh, you are being recognized in the area of Pro bono contribution of outstanding professional work for a community organization for your work as a volunteer photographer and video storyteller with the Special Olympics International in coverage of the World Summer Games in Los Angeles.

The committee felt that your scholarly activities were exemplary.

You will be recognized during the 2017 CIAS Commencement Ceremony. As a part of this award, you will receive an incentive of $1000.

Thank you for submitting your work in consideration for the Gitner Family Prize! I look forward to hearing about your future work and accomplishments.

Sincerely,

Robin Cass
Acting Dean
